Art, Home Class Work on Project Of Chair-Making

A new project for girls is being worked out in Dean Woody's Art and Home class, the act of making chairs out of vinegar barrels. This has proved to be an interesting discovery. Although this idea was used many years ago, the people today have resumed the same traditional scheme of covering them with flowered cotton and chintz. Some of the girls are carrying out modernistic designs of coloring.

These chairs are in the sewing room. Those who wish may visit the class any time during the day to get some instructions on making them in your own home.

Tri Sigma Hold Annual Baby Show

Sigma Sigma Sorority sponsored its third annual Baby Show and children's party on the afternoon of Saturday, May 19th on the lawn of Attorney Charles Feilich's home. Beveridge Street between Walnut and Elm streets was roped off by permission of city officials for the parade of children and their decorated carriages. Moving pictures of the parade and prize winners were taken and will be shown in the basement of the Presbyterian Church on Saturday, May 26 at twelve o'clock and one-fifteen p.m. for a small sum.

U. H. S. Class in Public Speaking To Present Plays

The University high school public speaking class is completing this week, on two one-act plays, "The Twilight Tempt" by Stark Young and "A Saint in a Teapot. The plays will be presented Tuesday, May 29 at 8 o'clock in the Socratic hall. They will be directed by Margaret Hill and Floyd Smith.

Originally the class had intended to produce "The Turtle Dove," a Chinese farce by Margaret Scott Oliver. However, because of difficulties in securing permission to use it, the play was abandoned. In its stead, the class will present a short piece entitled "A Saint in a Teapot," which was written for them by their practice teacher, Margaret Hill. The plays promise to be most entertaining.

MRS. RAGSDALE RESIGNS AS CRITIC IN JUNIOR HIGH

MISS LOUISE BACH TO TAKE HER PLACE IN ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

After having been a member of the faculty for ten years, Mrs. Louise Ragdale is resigning from her position as critic teacher in the Junior high school. Mrs. Ragdale first became affiliated with the school as a part-time student helper in the rural schools. Later, she and Mr. Ragdale took their B.Ed. and were promoted to a position on the faculty as rural critics. Mr. and Mrs. Ragdale took their M. A. from the University of Illinois in the same year and returned to the campus as a member of the English department and a Junior High critic, respectively.

Mrs. Ragdale is being replaced by Miss Louise Bach who was formerly a member of the faculty of the Community high school.

There will be two additional changes in the organization of the Allynn training school this summer. Miss Florence King will not remain in Carbondale during the summer months, since there is to be no first grade during the session.

Miss Mary Entminger will also be absent for the summer session. Miss Entminger will enter Teachers' College at Columbia University, N. Y. to complete work on her master's degree. George Bracewell, of the rural school department, will take Miss Entminger's place in the fifth grade for the summer session.

Delta Sigs to go to National Conclave In California

Some thirty Delta Sigs will leave Carbondale the second week of August to be present at the national convocation of the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority to be held at Santa Barbara, California. Here Delta Sigma Epsilon will be represented by girls from all over the United States.

Transportation will be furnished by the Thompson-Yellow Cab Company of Carbondale. The girls plan to go via the Southern route in order to have a day in Mexico. They will return by the northern route stopping at Salt Lake City, Grand Canyon, Yellowstone National park, and many other interesting places. They expect to be gone three weeks.

After the convocation has adjourned the party will spend some time in California visiting the old Spanish Mission, Hollywood, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and the various national resorts. A day will be spent on a trip to Catalina Island in the Pacific ocean.

This convocation is the national convention of the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority which is held every second year. Thirty-two chapters are to be represented. In 1933 the convocation was held at Buffalo, N. Y. Twenty representatives of the local Alpha Delta chapter made the trip. Lorene Mayor and Anna Louise Isherwood of Du Quoin were initiated at this convocation.

The official delegates from the sorority on this campus are Georgette McCormick of Collinsville, and Eloise Wright of Murphysboro. (Continued on Last Page)

Play Casts Show Fine Talent

Intensive Work on Arms and the Man

The eight members of the Zetetic cast for the play "Arms and the Man" are devoting their best talent to giving a remarkable performance of the first G. B. Shaw production to be presented in this end of the state. By the evening of June 7, the play will have acquired a good polish as the result of their labors.

Wesley Bovinet has been doing some outstanding work as Sergius, the "regular handsome fellow with flashing eyes and black moustache, who fights his battles as they would be fought in musical comedy, to the disgust of the matter-of-fact soldier, Bluntschli. Mr. Bovinet has made several previous appearances on the local stage, in such productions as "All's Fair," "The Swan," and "White Rosie."

Elizabeth Ann West as Raina is giving her usual creditable performance. "Miss West has played in "The Swan," "All's Fair," "White Rosie," "A Marriage Has Been Arranged," two Homecoming productions, and "Hay Fever."

As Louka, Jean Anton is doing in fine style her first important work in a major production at S. I. T. C. Her previous experience has been in "Paddox Lifts the Lid," presented at Anna under the direction of Marc Green, and "All's Fair."

Don Brummett is proving to be the great Zetetic find. He is giving a full interpretation to the leading role as Bluntschli, the complacent soldier who considers a piece of chocolate more essential than an equipment of munition. Mr. Brummett's only previous dramatic appearance on this campus was in "The Magazine Rack."

Marjorie Brown played in "The Swan," and "All's Fair," and is coming up to the standards which she set in these two productions by her performance as Catherine in the production now under way.

Roger Ohms appears once more to Carbondale audiences in the role of Nicola. Mr. Ohms has been seen in several S. I. T. C. plays, including "The Swan," "All's Fair," "The Valiant," "White Rosie," and "All at Sea."

A newcomer to the local stage is Arnold Thomas of Eldorado, who is working up a creditable performance as Major Petkoff. "Aside from playing the leading character roles in three high school operettas, Mr. Thomas has been associated actively with musical activities, having been a member of the WBSG staff as soloist for a year."

Everett Mitchell has been working on the production staffs of plays throughout the year, and in addition to playing the part of a Russian officer is stage-managing the forthcoming Zetetic production, Mr. Mitchell is to take twelve college terms in that branch of science.

The course number 316 is a history of physics and it will be a special desirable course for those who are planning to teach physics in high school. The course will be under the instruction of Miss Charlotte Zimmermann, and will be offered as one of the courses in the summer term.

S. I. T. C. now has nine classes above general college physics.

New Course in History of Physics Added to Program

Mr. Boomer has now added the twelfth course in his department of physics, which makes it possible for a student to take twelve college terms in that branch of science.

The Egyptian staff, on behalf of the college, extends its sympathy to Janet Wilson, whose mother died last week.

Miss Shank Accepts Advisory Position to Tri Sigma Group

Miss Marjorie Shank, Registrar of the college and a member of the Geography department, recently accepted the position of faculty adviser of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, and will take the post recently vacated by Miss Sara Baker of the History department.

Although Miss Shank has had no active association with student organizations on the campus in the past, she has always been highly in sympathy with such societies. A definite date has not yet been set, but the new adviser will be initiated in the very near future and will assume the regular duties of the position immediately.

H. Moss Appointed As Candidate For West Point Academy

Announcement of the appointment of Harry Moss of Carbondale as principal candidate for West Point from this district was carried in the Associated Press dispatches of last Thursday. At the time of the announcement Mr. Moss had not been officially notified of his appointment. However, he received his notification on Friday. As a result he will report at West Point in time to take his entrance examinations, June 21.

The press dispatches also carried the news of the appointment of Charles Denham of Herrin as first alternate.

Mr. Moss' appointment came as a surprise since his application had been made only a week before. Mr. Moss is a senior of S. I. T. C. During the four years of his college attendance he has been a member of Forum, the men's debating club. He has represented that organization in the annual spring debates with Illinois and in inter-collegiate debates. He is a member also of the Latin-American club.

"PAPERING" THE HOUSE

Tradition has made it compulsory that every member be given a first full of complimentary tickets when the college orchestra supplies music for a college play. Because it is traditional, we have accepted it without analyzing the effects.

At thirty-five cents a ticket, it costs the producers of the spring plays approximately $126.00 to have music for the two productions. The Socrats pay only $63.00 of that sum, and the Zetets the other $63.00 but it still seems that another orchestra could be secured much cheaper. Here is how to arrive at these figures: Each orchestra member, by his presence at the play, occupies a 35c seat when the music is over. For two nights, total of 70c. Each orchestra member is handed four complimentary tickets, two for the Socratic play, and two for the Zetetic. Total of $1.40. With approximately 60 members in the orchestra, the grand total comes to $126.00. A little high priced, even for such high calibre music.

The orchestra members are not, in our opinion, entitled to these complimentary tickets. Because they are the orchestra they are given free tuition. A form of payment for their time while they advance themselves in the field of music. With the exception of their chapel programs, they make but two truly public appearances annually, at their own regular concert, which is a money-maker, and the Commencement exercises, in which they advertise the college. It would be much more fitting if the orchestra indicated a spirit of cooperation rather than one of being ready for hire. Surely there should be a congenial reciprocity between the departments in place of payment for service. A.D.M.

COVERAGE DEMANDS COOPERATION

Last week's staff meeting saw the inauguration of a new system of ferreting out news—a system initiated with the aim of securing complete coverage of campus activities. Each member of the staff was made personally responsible for the report of news from the department assigned him. This duty is in addition to his regular staff work and involves the following procedure: The student visits some members of his department on Monday or Tuesday of each week and makes note of any possible stories that the editor might assign at the staff meeting on the following Wednesday. These notes are filed on the editor's desk by 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The editor goes over these notes carefully in making out the week's assignment sheet, the stories being apportioned to members of the staff according to their respective news values.

While all of the departments are thus represented, it is likely that none of them will have anything definite to report every week. Nevertheless the staff member must act on the presumption that he will have news.

If the various departments will cooperate, both in giving out stories and in reporting to the editor failure on the part of a staff member to call for news, the Egyptian can come to be more truly representative of campus activities as a whole. It is adverse to our policy that any one department should secure unmerited limelight, or that the activities of every department should not be publicized.

YOUR DEGREE

Approximately 134 seniors will reach out their hands for a sheeplein on the morning of June 3. Clutched nervously and carried outside the Shroyok Auditorium, what will it signify to each of the Dearests?

Will it be merely a time-card-marker to tell how many hours you punched the S. N. T. C. time clock? Will it be a sheet on which you scribble the events of four socially crowded years? Will it carry your memories of our many games of football lost, or many games of basketball won? Will it stand for four (or maybe three) of overstudy and cultivation of a pedantic disposition? Will it bring you acceptance into the society of the "better people"? Will it admit you to a higher university, get you a job, or a license to "ride the rails." Or will it stand for thorough preparation and time well spent?

For it is the S. N. T. C. that is the source of whose education are well apportioned and lasting. Most fortunate still is the underclassman who can look ahead and make them so!

WAR YEARS AT S. I. T. C.

WAR YEARS

The very first article in the May, 1917 issue of the Egyptian concerns the subject, "Six Essential Points in Raising Beef Cattle." Enumerated in the order of their importance, they are: 1. Selection of breed; 2. Selection of individuals within the breed; 3. Shelter; 4. Feed; 5. Maintaining the herd; 6. Marketing.

The following quotation is taken from an editorialized story: "It has been suggested that the school take up a system of military drill. In the midst of the war, distant that close seems to be. If the government of the United States is alive to its responsibilities, this step will not be necessary. We are of the opinion that universal training will be adopted. If the government does not see fit to do this, if the minds of congressmen are so warped with political schemes, that this measure is defeated, the S. I. N. U. to keep alive and up-to-date must adopt military drill."

Mr. McAndrew ceased his duties as physical director to go to Culver Military Academy to receive training.

Patriotism at S. I. N. U. is such that we are proud. Many of our best fellows have gone to the service—regular army, navy, marines, hospital corps, farm, and officers' reserve corps. The girls are strong supporters of the Red Cross. This is patriotism of the true American type.

The orchestra gave its last concert until after the war at Benton, April 27. . . . We were sorry to lose our director (Mr. Babin), but since he went, we wish him well. After he had left, the business manager received word asking us to come to Johnson City, but he had to refuse.

Mid-spring term opens Monday, May 7. Summer term opens Monday, June 25. . . . Review courses in arithmetic, grammar, geography, history, physics, botany, zoology. Other review courses will be offered if there is sufficient demand. Address, R. W. Shroyok, President.

With The Graduates

Clarence Sanford, '26, M.A., '30, University of Michigan, making three weeks work of completing requirements for Ph.D. New York University, New York City, is employed as a history critic in Ohio University, Athens, Ohio. This is Mr. Sanford's third year as a critic in the University.

Mr. Sanford has contributed a number of articles to history magazines, among them being one entitled "Methods of High School History." Following his graduation from S. I. T. C., Mr. Sanford taught in the Carbondale Community high school, and later was appointed as principal and teacher of the Lincoln grade school in Carbondale. No doubt his teaching experience has afforded Mr. Sanford an authoritative background for his published contributions.

Mrs. Sanford was Elizabeth Garrison, '28, prior to her marriage. Following her graduation from this college she taught in the Dongola high school until her marriage.

Eldon Rushing, who entered college here in 1907, has accepted a position with the Metropolitan Life Insurance company at Carlyle. Mr. Rushing for the past three years has been employed by the F. W. Woolworth company at Carbondale and Centralia, working two seasons in Carbondale and one year in the latter city.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Rushing was Katie Mae Kerstine, '31, who was employed as a critic teacher in the Brush grade school in Carbondale until her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Rushing will make their home in Carlyle where Mr. Rushing will assume his new duties.

An announcement has been received of the engagement and approaching marriage of Phyllis Prosser, and Philip Kimmel of Elkville, which will take place on June 3.

Miss Prosser has been employed as a teacher in the Elkville high school.

The engagement of Ruth Smith, '30, Junior College, and Norman Kelsen of St. Louis was announced recently in Hammond, Indiana. Miss Smith has taught in the Hammond schools during the past three years.

An announcement of the marriage of Betty Ruth Sparrow to George Porter, '32, Junior College, was recently received. The marriage took place on Sunday evening, May 12, at the First Baptist parsonage at Jonesboro.

THE SPHINX KNOWS:

Our Miss Smith says that the three principal parts of the verb "bring" are "bring," "brang," "brung."

Dr. Young seemed disappointed when the Kappa Phi Kappa boys found his car after the picnic at Riverside Park parked just where he had left it. Doc Young had been raving around about it's being stolen and had even notified the police. Our theory is his insurance is paid.

The ghost at 808 Third Normal has been caught and opinion is that Harry Petroff is a viper and a lowlife.

Harrison Eaton brought enough rose cuttings back from Paducah to start a flower garden for his girl.

That Don Brummett yawns so realistically in "Arms and the Man" that all the rest of the cast wants to lie down on the auditorium stage.

That Bob Boyle and Henry Hitt are eating so many sandwiches in practicing for "The Importance of Being Earnest" that they've lost their appetite for their regular meals.

THE SPHINX WONDERS:

Why Woodrow Maze's room-mate, Bob Gallagher, carries an electric fan with him when he goes anywhere.

Have you seen Miss Shanks's brown-checked shoes.

Who is the prominent actress who wears a night-gown in "Arms and the Man."

What Randolph Sitter was doing at the Allyn building Wednesday evening at 9:30.

Why the director said to Wesley Boyvint, "You come in looking very handsome. This part along there is awfully funny." We'd call that a sham.

What girl George Gill was holding hands with at the carnival Thursday night.

Which is funnier, Bob Boyle or Henry Hitt, and why.

Dear Sphinx:

I am a guest for the unusual man again; since you are so old and wise and everything, I thought you might be some help.

Now I know it is quite foolish to be this way, but you see I get violent crushes on men because they are so different from the rymors, or walk like Herbert Marshall. After one evening of these tingles, the bottom usually drops out of everything. Either they act like one of the younger high school brats down at Entsmingers or don't use the right technique. Were all made of one pattern, or is it just me?

Yours truly,

"E. K."

Dear E. K.:

I just received a telegram from Drew Pearson concerning Miss Power and it requires all my immediate attention. Just keep cool and hang on for another week, though, dear, and I'll answer your letter in detail in next Wednesday's issue.

Best of w. hen,

THE SPHINX.

Among the contributions of the orchestra last week were Dvorak's beautiful fairy, "Humoresque," a modern novelty; Percy Grainger's "Gum Suckers' March" from his suite "In a Nutshell," and two vigorous marches, "With Trumpet and Drum," and "Square and Compass."

The hand presented as its chief contribution a romance, "Night in June" with the haritone solo played by George Capen, who obtained a rich, melodic, resonant tone. The losing number was that masterpiece of march literature, "Washington Grays," done up in heroic style.

The Wailing Wall

The "Wailing Wall" offers the student an opportunity to voice through print his opinions of various things concerning college life. The Egyptian carries this column in its pages, but it should be understood by everyone that the Egyptian itself remains in policy entirely independent of the letters which it publishes. These ideas are of the students, not of the newspaper staff. All letters must be signed when they are sent to the Egyptian office, although the signature will be withheld upon special request.

Dear Editor: Has anything ever been done to ward getting a swimming pool for this school? If not, it's about time for us to start.

Swimming is one of the most popular of sports, and if you'll indulge around you'll find that about nine out of ten students want a pool. Of course, just the fact that we want one will not get us one. A lot of work on the part of the students and a little of the State or Federal aid will make it possible, though.

We all know swimming is one of the best forms of exercise for complete body development and also the addition of this sport to the program of the Physical Education department would make it the finest in the state, outside of the University.

I think we should at least try and see what can be done. Maybe we can get a pool. Who knows? J.M.

"Sell Yourself,"

Advices Mr. Bryant

"Mr. Bryant, I am interested in getting a part time job for next year. Do you know where I might find one?"

Mr. Bryant, who has charge of the employment of boys, sat down on the edge of his desk and with a great deal of interest suggested, "Of course, you know that jobs are few and far between, but any boy who has a pleasing personality, one who is ambitious can find something to do. Once a young man came to me and said, 'Unless I can find work I am going to be forced to drop out of school. Have you got a position for me?' When I asked him if he had asked anybody else for work he said, 'No, I thought that you could give me a job.' Well, I told him as I am telling you, that I could not do such a thing, but that he should go out and sell himself.

"Now you go and see the campus counselors and tell him what you want. If he can not help you, start at the end of this street (referring to Normal avenue) and canvass every house. Tell each housewife what you can do, such as washing dishes and cutting grass. Give her a card on which you have typed your name and address. Try to impress her with your personality. In other words, sell yourself."

Tri Sigma

The Tri Sigma Mothers' club, which was organized the early part of this year, sponsored a benefit bridge party at the chapter house last Friday afternoon at two-thirty. The chapter house porch were attractively decorated. There were twenty tables of players. Home-made candy was served.

Ten prizes consisting of dishes and home-made baked goods, were offered, the winners being Mrs. Hal Moore, Mrs. Bruce Marvin, Mrs. Findley, Mrs. Joe Wright, Mrs. John Daniel, Mrs. L. M. Brooks, Mrs. Schremp, Mrs. Lyle, Mrs. Armaly, Mrs. Charles Tenney, and Mrs. H. R. Wilson.

Many out-of-town guests were present, including visitors from Anna, Flobien, Carterville, Sparta, Marshall, Steelville, Murphysboro, Omaha, Nebraska, and East St. Louis.

Mary Isabel Campbell and Dorothy Sinnott spent the latter part of the week end at Columbia, Mo., visiting the University of Missouri and Christian College.

Mignon Seed, spent the week end in St. Louis, visiting her relatives.

Junetta Richardson, Jane Federer, Florence Crossman, Lucille Edgar, and Florence Noman, alumnae, attended the sorority's dance.

COMMERCE CLUB TO HOLD LAST MEETING TOMORROW

A motion picture of the St. Louis trip will be shown at the final meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow evening. The other numbers on the program will be a surprise. The Commerce Club invites everyone to come to the meeting.

STATE TRACK AND FIELD MEET, MAY 25, 26 AT MONMOUTH

STATE NORMAL IS LISTED AS MEET FAVORITE, S. I. T. C. POSSIBLE SECOND

Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26, the Little Nineteen Conference colleges will meet at Monmouth, Illinois for the state outdoor track and field carnival. State Normal, last year's champion, is again the meet favorite, with the Carbondale Teachers, runner-up last year, favored to cop the second position once more.

Normal, winner of the Teachers' College meet, presents such stars as Gorens, Barton, Bremer, Armstrong, Fisher, and possibly the great middle-distance star who has been out because of a bad leg—Lyle Hutton. The Redbirds are especially strong in the track events, and have strengthened their field events enough to win a few points.

The Southerners are going to rely on their strength in the field events and in the hurdles. Coach Lyle Hutton will probably take his relay team and use Tripp and Heiderscheid in the 440 yard dash. Harry Bauder, state's best shot putter and discus hurler, has a chance to annex two firsts in these two field events.

In the hurdle events, the Southerners present three good high hurdlers and two remarkable low hurdlers. In the highs, Mings, Crisp, and Furdens are probably the best in the state. Tripp and Crisp should be able to gather some points in the lows at the meet.

The nearest competitor to Bauder in the discus is Rogenski of Augustana. However, the Augustana flash has only hurled the plate 132 feet while the Southerners have two men who have been throwing it farther. The present record stands of 134 feet 7 inches should fall.

Other records, almost certain to topple this year. In the pole vault, five men have been approaching 13 feet this season. Paul Sweeney of Illinois College, present record holder at 12 feet 9 1/4 inches, Lloyd Siebert, of North Central, Robert Gorens of Carthage, and Tamsin Komein of Wheaton are the leading aspirants for the new record.

In the shot put, Harry Bauder of Carbondale, Tony Blaine of Wesleyan, and Chet Newburg of St. Viator, are the three leading putters who are liable to surpass the present record of 45 feet 6 inches.

"Hippo" Brown will be out to duplicate his 1933 feat in javelin. His nearest contestant is Osburn of Monmouth, who has been throwing the spear away all year. Robert Smith is also favored to score heavily in this event.

The high jump will renew the fight between Day and Cole for the honors of the year. Cole has defeated the Western jumper twice this season, but Day will be out to hold his title in the state meet. Herbert Bricker has been jumping six feet and may be able to grab off a second place in the event.

Probably the most hotly contested event of the day will be the broad jump. Armin Dreuvalds of Elmhurst, last year's winner, will be present to see if he can out-jump Cole and Crisp of Carbondale. Jim Winn, Illinois College all-around star, is certain to place in this event.

In the 440, among the leading contestants, in Don Irwin of Monmouth who has been timed in 50.6 seconds this year. Karl Hein, DeKalb star, ran the quarter in 52.2 at the State Teachers' College meet. Galloway, of Macomb, is probably the state's leading quarter-miler, and with the running of the event in Iowa, Galloway should score in the first three. Southerners will be represented by Tripp and Heiderscheid.

With the absence of Jimmie Johnson, Normal's great sprinter, the century and 220 yard dashes are a toss-up. Deacon Gorens, of State Normal seeks to be the leading centimeter runner and Nort of DeKalb should place in the two events.

In conjunction with the track meet, the faculty and students' golf and tennis tournaments will be run off. Mr. Wadell Margrave and Dr. Charles Tenny will represent this college in the faculty tennis tournament.

Officials of Little Nineteen To Meet May 25

"What is the status of an athlete transferring from a Junior College in regard to participating in athletics his first year at an accredited college" may be the important question to be discussed at the annual spring meeting of the Little Nineteen Conference, officials, which will be held at Monmouth Friday night May 25.

Captain William McAndrew director of athletics at S. I. T. C., who succeeded James A. Campbell of Knox College as president of the conference at the fall meeting in Chicago, will preside for the first time.

The spring meeting is always held in conjunction with the State Track and Field meet.

Southern will be represented by Captain McAndrew and Dr. Richard Beyer.

The following advertisement was taken from a college newspaper of the University of British Columbia: "Wanted: A freshman with car, to take male Junior to Frosh reception."

Continuing their heavy production of hits, the Hunky Dories won from the Merchants 18-1 for their third straight victory. All told the Hunkies gathered 15 hits during the fracas.

Ralph Davison, who had pitched two successive no-hit no-run games was prevented from annexing his third in a row when Bramlet, playing for the Merchants, got a hit. Holder and Davison hold the Hunky Dories in hitting.

In their second contest of the week, the Scamps shutout the Mysterious Nine, 16-0. The Scamps put the game on ice in the first inning when they pushed over four runs. Veach, pitching for the Scamps, led the Mysterious Nine down with only three hits and two of these were made by Morgan.

In the most thrilling game of the week, the Kappa Delta Alpha annexed out a victory over the Tantalizers by a score of 5-4. Harrison, twirling for the Fraternity team, gave the Tantalizers only four hits and was in trouble only in the last inning when with the tying run on base and two runs in he tightened up and struckout Caldwell for the last out.

Coaches will meet at 1:30 Friday, May 25, to draw for lanes and heats in the preliminaries. The annual meeting of the conference will be held that evening after which the coaches will hold their meeting to draw for lanes, etc., in the finals. ## Monmouth Predicts Records to Topple In Coming Meet

Monmouth, Ill., May 23.—Meyer Morton, prominent Big Ten official has been named starter and referee of the fifteenth annual track meet and field championship of the Little 19 Conference meet to be held on the Monmouth College field, May 25 and 26, according to the announcement by H. L. Hart, director of athletics at Monmouth, and manager of the meet. Records are expected to tumble in several events and the race for first place honors promises to be exceedingly close. In connection with the meet faculty and student golf teams will engage in their annual tournament and faculty tennis teams will stage their annual tournament.

While coaches and athletes throughout the conference are making every effort to round into the peak of condition and form for the meet, officials at Monmouth are busy perfecting conditions and arrangements for the running of the meet. The quarter-mile oval eight lane wide track, and the 220 yard straightaway ten lanes wide are being brushed, rolled, and sprinkled until these cinder raceways are in as perfect condition as it is possible to get them. Instruction sheets giving detailed information about the meet have been mailed to every coach along with the time schedules and entry blanks. Entries are to be returned not later than May 16.

Coaches will meet at 1:30 Friday, May 25, to draw for lanes and heats in the preliminaries. ## W. A. A. Sponsors Annual Play Day Last Saturday

The fifth annual Play Day sponsored by the Womens Athletic Association of this campus was held very successfully last Saturday, May 12. Although the number of entries was not as large as last year's, there were seven Southern Illinois high schools represented by teams of girls, accompanied by their sponsors.

Upon their arrival at 8:30, the girls were registered and assigned to group teams which were made up of one girl from each school. There were eight of these number teams, who competed for the team awards presented at the end of the day.

After a short get-acquainted period when the girls met their fellow team-members and sang songs, Chairman Nedra Goggin was introduced to the girls and presented them with their day's schedule.

The morning's program consisted of a series of individual track events in which every girl participated. These sports were the baseball throw, the basketball throw, 50 yard dash, and hop-and-go.

At noon the girls and their sponsors were entertained at Anthony Hall for luncheon and a short program of talks and singing. Immediately after lunch, the girls were sent on a treasure hunt, after which the remainder of the day was spent in tournament in volleyball and long-base, as well as other sports such as tennis, ping-pong, horse shoes, etc.

At four o'clock the individual awards for the morning's competition, and the team award for the group who had accumulated the most points during the day.

Seven high schools were represented by forty-three girls. They were: Elkhart, Murphysboro, Zeigler, Herrin, Centralia, and Carbondale Community high school.

Socrats to Hold Picnic Tonight At Giant City

A picnic at Giant City with an impromptu program will be substituted for the regular meeting tonight of the Socratic Society.

"Success" was the topic of the address Professor Boomer presented to the Socratic group last week. Mr. Boomer, an honorary member of the society, spoke of the rarity with which one finds a man of real success. "Out of a hundred young men twenty-five years old," he said, "thirty-six die before they reach sixty-five. Out of the remaining sixty-four, fifty-four are dependent upon someone for a living, five earn a living wage, four are well-to-do and one is wealthy."

Mr. Boomer cited examples of habits on success. He spoke of the infallible principles which one who would be a success must observe. The string ensemble, directed by Mildred McLean, played these three selections in excellent style: "The Cuckoo Clock," "Kale," and "I Love You Truly." John Straub, William Randle, Wayne Barker, and Paul Reeder, composing the Socratic quartet, sang "Down the River of Golden Dreams," and "Old King Cole."

The society maintained officers for the fall term. The election will take place at the meeting of May 30.

String Quartet of Socratic Society Much in Demand

One of the latest diversions of the Socratic Literary Society is its newly organized string quartet. The quartet has been very active since its organization and has filled several out-of-town engagements, among which was the performance given before the Marion Rotary in Gracy Hall, May 8.

The quartet is under the direction of Mildred McLean and is composed of the following additional members: Oveta Good, Dorothy Hopkins, Frank Smith, Paul Reeder, and Grover Morgan.

Sigma Sigma Sigma Conducts Annual Spring Formal Program

With a shower of confetti and a tangle of colored paper streamers, Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority conducted its annual spring formal at the college last Friday night. The old gymnasium was attractively decorated in the sorority's colors. Flowers and fresh foliage banked the walls.

The eighth and ninth dances were novelty dances. During the eighth dance a large box of rolled paper streamers and confetti was placed in the center of the floor. This was raised and the dancers turned to tangle confetti and hurrying streamers across the ceiling decorations. Curtis Hill served as master of ceremonies in the ninth dance, conducted in such a manner that two separate groups of girls and men revolved about the floor. At a signal from Mr. Hill, the revolving groups stopped and each danced with the person discovered facing him.

The committee in charge of the dance included Virgie Lindsey, chairman; Phyllis Petersen, and Mary Lawrence. The chaperons were as follows: Dr. and Mrs. O. B. Young, Mr. and Mrs. David C. McIntosh, Miss Aileen Carpenter, Miss Julia Jonah, Dr. and Mrs. E. Van Lente, and Mr. Robert Dunn Finner. The music was furnished by Oral Harris and his orchestra.

Agricultural Club Attends Rural Life Conference at Urbana

Members of the Agricultural Club attending the second annual Young People's Rural conference at Urbana last Saturday report an interesting as well as a very instructive time.

For this convention the program committee secured several very prominent men to bring messages to the conference for the young people. These included Dean H. W. Mumford, who delivered the welcoming address at the opening session at 9:30 a. m.

In the tentative plans for the third annual conference to be held in 1935, the suggestion that the young people of the convention take complete charge of it, was well received. This innovation will give those students and rural young people of Southern Illinois who are active in the work a chance to develop their abilities of leadership.

Zoology Classes Conduct Trips to St. Louis Gardens

Two classes in the zoology department have made especially interesting trips lately. Miss Stein's class visited the St. Louis Zoological Gardens last Thursday. The members of the class studied the various specimens there, the collection of snakes belonging to the department.

Among the seventy-five species of birds that the ornithology class saw at Horshesho Lake on Saturday, May 17, some of the most interesting were: Canada geese, great blue herons, little blue herons, little blue herons, greets, cormorants, hawks, and dozens of wood son birds.
